

1 THE THEME

Hold onto your hats, plaits and furry mats because we have brought together the best and some of the biggest heads in the industry and have come up with...Red Nose Day 2003 - The Big Hair Do. Yep. Red Nose Day comes over all fuzzy on 14

for their theory test and mastering mirror (without checking their hair!), signal and manoeuvre, before taking the dreaded driving test. With cars kindly donated by Ford, the climax of Comic Relief Does Celebrity Driving School promises to be a roller coaster of emotions, but who will be able to ditch their chauffeurs and get behind the wheel for good? They will find out if they have passed or failed live on the big night.

and Delilah. Radio 4 is going Red Faced for Red Nose Day, and will be revealing some hairy moments on the network. Listeners are invited to call a premium rate number to listen to the hairy clips and vote for their favourite. (Calls cost £1 with 70p going to Comic Relief). Radio 5 Live are already up and running with the 5 Go To Africa competition. Football fanatic and Royle Family star Ralf Little is off to South Africa to captain a BBC Radio Five Live five-a-side team for Comic Relief - and from Monday 13 January listeners have been competing for a once-in-a-lifetime chance to join him.
