1 EXT. ESTATE IN DAGENHAM - DAY 1

RITA O' GRADY and her husband EDDIE, both late twenties, step onto the balcony of a flat on a massive housing estate in East London. With them are their two children, GRAHAM and SHARON.

They kiss the kids goodbye as another man, also in blue overalls, emerges from the flats, clambers onto a bike and sets off down the car-less streets. Rita and Eddie grab their own bikes, and ride off into an ever broadening stream of people.

2 EXT. ESTATE - DAY 2

On another part of the estate, a much younger woman, SANDRA, emerges from a flat, waves to her mum on a balcony above and hops onto her bike. She wobbles off, the white patent leather boots she is wearing make balance something of a challenge.

3 INT. ESTATE - DAY 3

Sandra filters in with the great tide of cyclists pouring from the Estate beneath the baking sun. We see them from high above. Sandra spots Eddie and Rita, calls out and speeds up to join them.

4 INT. FORD MAIN PLANT - DAY 4

The tide has become a flood as more and more cyclists freewheel through town and down a hill towards a massive industrial complex with a blue neon sign above it:

As they approach the factory, the cyclists diverge, men one way, women the other. Several people stop and kiss at the point of divergence, including Eddie and Rita. Then he pushes off towards the Main Plant, brand new and state of the art while she turns her bike towards a crumbling nineteen twenties monolith the River Plant. We follow Rita, as she cycles between the blackened, paint peeled

5 INT. RIVER PLANT - DAY

On the shop floor, a cramped, filthy, windowless place, chatter and laughter rings out. The girls, nearly 200 of them, roll down their overalls and tie the arms off in front of them, revealing bras or camisoles. And as Rita enters and moves to her bench, we drop to floor level and see that nearly all of the women have now removed their shoes. As Rita, threading up her sewing machine, wipes a bead of sweat away from her face, we understand why: the place is an oven! Rita grabs a box of vinyl pieces as Eileen walks past, revealing a ferocious wired bra.

RITA

ALBERT (CONT'D)

Right, well... to quote Winston Churchill himself: it ain't the end. It ain't even the beginnin' of the end. But it may well be the end of the beg-

BRENDA

Albert, for fuck's sake, get on with it-

The women laugh. Several call out.

ALBERT

Please! Ladies! I'm doin' me best here-

A shout that he's lovely when he's cross. Albert sags but gradually, the girls are quiet. He nods, relieved.

ALBERT (CONT'D)

Thank you...

(clears throat)

So... The deadline we set the management, to respond to our complaint about how they've re-graded you... "unskilled"... has now passed.

(voices shout; serious this time)

And they still ain't got back to us-
(louder cries)

Which means!... you gotta vote! On the threat we made in that original communiqué: an immediate ban on all overtime and a one day stoppage - to happen on the 29th of May.

(silence. Eileen glances at Rita, nervously)

All them for industrial action: hands up.

Rita's determined face. Her arm goes straight up. She looks round. All of the other hands are up, too.

Against?

(no one)

Thank you. 187 to nil. I'm seein' the management first thing tomorrow mornin'. I'll inform 'em of your decision.

A stunned moment, then as Albert steps down, a huge cheer and applause as and the women break into groups, talking excitedly. Eileen grabs Rita.

EILEEN

We done it!

Rita looks nervous, too.

RITA

First time for everything...

BRENDA

Fuck 'em. That's what I say. Every other bugger round here goes on strike. Why shouldn't we?

RITA

Yeah. Just... maybe don't put it like that if you get interviewed by David Frost, eh?

Everyone laughs and the girls return to their benches, still chattering furiously. In the doorway, Albert watches the women going back to their positions. A young lad, BRIAN, passes by, sweeping the corridor. Albert looks to him, indicating the girls.

ALBERT

I fought Rommel, you know. I was never once scared like I am when I go in there.

The hooter sounds and the machines start up again. Immediately the door slides shut, just as the girls begin to disrobe.

INT. DAGENHAM DOCK CLUB - EVENING

The sports and social club has been decorated with streamers and balloons. by Gary Puckett plays on a large portable record player, perched on the stage at one end of the room. However, the dark suits and knee length skirts of the packed dance floor bring to mind the nineteen fifties, not the sixties.

The joint is jumping, nevertheless. And standing at a corner table, Rita throws down a large gin before rushing back to Eddie, caught in the thick of the dancing. Close to him is Connie, with GEORGE, her husband, a couple of years younger, angular and handsome, moving stiffly. Also nearby are Eileen and Dave. Eddie spins Rita rather too vigorously and she nearly goes over, laughing, as he grabs her again. Then, suddenly, the music stops and everyone is plunged into near darkness. Moans and complaints from the floor as a Dave runs towards the record player.

DAVE

Alright! Hold your horses-

EILEEN

(to Dave)

This happens every time-

More shouts of derision.

CONNIE

He puts the wrong fuse in. I keep tellin' him-

Then suddenly a piano sounds out. Heads spin towards the back of the room where the older folk are gathered.

RITA

Oh, God! Give him half a chance and he's in there-

Albert is playing "MY OLD MAN." The oldsters immediately start singing along, to groans from the youngsters.

RITA (CONT'D)
-Bleedin' Liberace-

But then, the power is back on and Rita puts the record player on again, drowning out Albert. It's Sandie Shaw's, . A big cheer. Rita and the others start dancing. She looks across to a peeved Albert and winks at him. He's not amused. Eddie leans in-

EDDIE
Here, where's Brenda gone?

Rita looks uneasy. She shrugs. Eddie nods and whisks her off again.

INT. CAR - EVENING

A man grunts and thrusts. He's having sex, eyes shut,

He relents. Connie pushes her own across.

CONNIE (CONT'D)
Same again for me, ta!

Rita smiles, just as a figure lurches into her.

SANDRA
Who's next, then?

Sandra, in a much shorter skirt than the others, also with a bee hive hair-do, wears a sash which says 21 TODAY and sways alarmingly.

EDDIE
You sure you don't wanna sit down five minutes, Sandra?

SANDRA
You're jokin'...

CONNIE
What about some food...?
(to Eileen)
She won't eat nothin'...
(to Sandra) There's Scotch eggs-

SANDRA
(to Rita)
I'll have a snowball... Come on, George.
You ain't tripped the whatsit with me yet, have you?

She weaves back onto the floor and is soon involved in something very sixties and very unstable. Rita watches her, then looks back to George uneasily. He starts to move, but it's an effort-

ALBERT (V.O.)
Do you mind, George... If I have this one...?

They turn; Albert is staring across at Sandra; he bends to one side, limbering up. Rita smiles at Albert's gesture. He turns to Connie.

ALBERT (CONT'D)
Like to keep me hand in... Jitterbug, Twist. All them...

He takes a deep breath and prepares to stride out-

RITA
Yeah, well, don't overdo it...
(Albert turns to her)
Give yourself an heart attack... We need I'll have 12.085

Albert tuts, piqued. Then he strides out onto the floor.

She settles on by Matt Monroe, then takes a drag on a fag, finishes ironing a shirt and moves across to a cooker where she removes a pan of beans from the heat. She spoons them onto three plates, eggs and bacon already in place, then pauses again, feeling sick. Rita places the plates on the table. In front of Sharon, her daughter (8) who is reading a comic. Graham, their eleven year old son enters, still in his pyjamas.

RITA
Graham... You're gonna be late-

GRAHAM
I don't feel very well...

Rita frowns, crosses and feels Graham's forehead.

RITA
You're not hot

GRAHAM
It's me stomach.

It's said very quickly. Then he tucks into his breakfast. Rita watches and frowns. Graham eats with the fork in his left hand, his right, clenched. She takes it. He resists but Rita fixes him with her gaze and he unclenches his fist as she turns it over. His palm has angry red welds across it. Rita is shocked.

GRAHAM (CONT'D)
I never done nothin' -
(she looks him right in the eye) Honest.

She stares. Nods. It's enough.

RITA
Mr y T c

13 INT. RITA'S HOUSE, BEDROOM - DAY 13

Rita pulls back the sheets on their bed.

RITA
Oy! Lover boy!

Eddie lies face down on the bed. He wears nylon pyjama bottoms. He moans.

EDDIE
Clear off. I'm dyin'.

RITA
We're all dyin'. And we all gotta go to work... Clean shirt-

She drapes it over him. And walks to the door. She looks back. He hasn't moved. She crosses, removes the shirt and tips a bedside glass of water over his back. He yelps, leaps up and she walks out.

14 EXT. FACTORY - DAY 14

As clouds gather, the men (and only men) go about their business outside. GORDON, late twenties, drives a motorised trolley cart, full of completed seats. They load brand new, shining Ford cars onto transporters. But then, a crack of thunder and it starts to rain-

15 INT. FACTORY FLOOR - DAY 15

The thunder of the factory. The women work in silence. Sweat drips from Rita's face and she wipes her brow with her sleeve. She's moving with her usual speed, but with something else, too; aggression, as she yanks hard at the cotton threads she must cut off from around the headrests. Then there is a moan. She turns. Connie has stopped work and glugs from a bottle of Lucozade.

CONNIE
Never again, I swear.

Beside Connie, Eileen re-applies a cold flannel to the back of her neck and Brenda downs a pint of milk. But suddenly, spots of water are dripping through the roof.

CONNIE (CONT'D)
Oh-

She looks up and grabs an umbrella which she wedges above her station.

BRENDA
Alley-bloody-lujah-

Brenda and several other girls step right under the rain, to cool down. Eileen turns to Connie.

EILEEN

You'll go mad, takin' that up and down... It's showers all day!

CONNIE

ALBERT

BRENDA

Fuck off!

ALBERT

Oh, come on... It's a day off-

All hands go up in the air. Several people call out, too. Albert looks over the rows of faces, just as stymied as before. But then he notices Rita. Their gazes lock again. And he smiles.

16

EXT. RIVER PLANT - DAY

16

Rita wipes down her bench and tosses the off cuttings and threads in a bin. The women are done for the day. She hurries towards the exit. But her way is suddenly blocked, as a forklift truck tows in a massive trailer load of dismantled, un-upholstered seats.

CONNIE

What you doin' with them?

GORDON

This new Escort. Looks like they finally designed something people like.

The driver jumps down, unhooking the load.

BRENDA

Well they can get fucked! We've had our vote! We ain't doin' no overtime!

GORDON

Yeah, you took the plunge at last...

He doesn't re-connect the trailer but climbs on board the forklift, anyway, scoffing:

GORDON (CONT'D)

Me and the boys was sayin': we'd've gone on strike years ago; just havin' to turn up in a pig hole like this! You know it's rainin' in here, don't you?

And he drives off. The women stare at the seats, suddenly aware of what they are doing. Rita, frustrated by the delay, leans in to Connie.

RITA

I'll see you tomorrow-

CONNIE

Rita-

TEACHER (CONT' D)
How may I help you?

His tone is clipped, Empire. Rita stares at the man.
There is no easy way. Finally-

RITA
You hit my son.

He frowns, confused. But Rita, hearing it said, feels stronger. And more angry.

RITA (CONT' D)
On his hand. You caned him. And it ain't the first time.

TEACHER
Ah. Yes.

RITA

I don't see what-

TEACHER

We find that those boys who come to us from the estate often have difficulty in adjusting to the standards of behaviour required in a school like this... It's not really their fault. Their parents have invariably never undergone the full rigours of academic life-

He looks at her quizzically. And now Rita struggles to hold his gaze. The teacher continues, pleased.

TEACHER (CONT'D)

So the boys can hardly look to them for guidance...

Rita tries to keep her expression neutral.

TEACHER (CONT'D)

But they do adapt... In time... And I'm sure your son will, too. If he's just given the chance.

He smiles, comes across and holds out his hand to shake. Rita stares at it, utterly shocked.

20

INT. SCHOOL - DAY

20

Rita walks blindly away from the classroom, turns down a corridor and stops. Ahead is a dead end. She quickly retraces her steps, passing back round the corner. Another woman, LISA, waits outside the classroom now. She turns to face Rita. She is of a similar age, thin, and impeccably dressed in expensive high street fashion. She frowns, sensing Rita's distress.

LISA

Are you alright?

She speaks with a posh voice. Rita trembles.

RITA

Fuck off!

Then Rita barges past her.

21

EXT. HIGH STREET/NEW KIOSK- DAY

21 **

Rita is shaking, upset and angry. She fumbles in her bag but her packet of fags is empty. **

She walks towards a News Kiosk and steps to the front of a small queue.

**

RITA
Ten John Player, please.
(hands across money)
Ta.

**
**

She looks down. A few magazines are laid out on top of a tressel table. One of them is Vogue. It's cover shows Jean Shrimpton with short, slicked down hair and panda eyes: the sixties of popular memory. The byline reads: ALL CHANGE. Rita picks it up.

**
**

RITA (CONT'D)
And this, thank you.

She stands tall as she passes it over.

23 INT. RITA'S HOUSE - NIGHT 23

TV pictures of The Prague Spring. A Czech student drops a flower down the barrel of a soldier's gun.

ANNOUNCER

Russia said it was monitoring the situation closely-

Audio fades.

RITA (O.S.)

Tea's ready...

Sharon looks round from the telly. Rita stands by the door, a tea towel in her hands. Eddie is dozing on the sofa and starts to rouse himself. Graham is at a table by the wall where he is doing his homework. He turns and Rita smiles at him.

RITA (CONT'D)

Alright? Need any help?

GRAHAM

Naah. It's easy.

He packs his stuff up. Rita looks at him guiltily. But then he turns suddenly and sees her staring.

GRAHAM (CONT'D)

What's up?

RITA

Nothin'... You're a good lad. That's all.

She ducks away from his gaze and moves to the TV. We see that it is now showing an episode of The Magic Roundabout; Sharon has turned over. But Rita switches off.

SHARON

Aw, mum-

Rita steps back into the kitchen. Eddie picks Sharon up as he passes her. She giggles.

SHARON (CONT'D)

Here, Dad, Martine Clarke's got colour. I seen it-

24 INT. KITCHEN - NIGHT

24

They start to sit round the table.

EDDIE

Yeah, well, we'll have colour soon. Once you can rent 'em-

Rita looks to Eddie who takes up his knife and fork.

RITA

Eddie... We can't go talkin' about colour. We ain't paid for the fridge yet. And the three piece is still on tick.

(he frowns; so?)

And now we got all this unrest at work.

EDDIE

(realising; laughing)

That! You had a vote, Rita. Unrest's when you actually come out and strike!

Rita's face falls and Eddie looks immediately guilty.

EDDIE (CONT'D)

Hey, come on! Don't look like that. I'm only jokin'... I'm proud of you. We all are... Stickin' to your guns... We had a book goin' on the shop floor: no one thought you'd even take the vote. So-

(nods positively)

Well done!

Sharon smiles at her mother, too. Rita looks from her, back to Eddie. She isn't sure quite how to take the comment and finally she shrugs.

RITA
Well... It ain't just a vote now. We got a meetin' tomorrow. With all the bosses... And I'm goin'.

Her family stare back, stunned. She avoids eye contact.

RITA (CONT'D)
So... I'll plate your tea up, in the mornin'. Then if I'm a bit late back, you'll just need to heat it through.

Eddie nods relieved. And Rita feels suddenly piqued.

RITA (CONT'D)
Apparently we go to a Berni Inn. On our way there.

She takes a mouthful of her own food, still looking at Eddie, a twinkle in her eyes.

24A EXT. BERNI INN - DAY

24A **

We see Connie, Rita, Albert and Monty enter the Berni Inn.

25 INT. BERNI INN - DAY

25

Red velour and a deep blue carpet. And in a far corner of the restaurant, Rita and Connie, facing Albert and Monty around a table. The two men wear dark suits, Rita and Connie smart dresses; both have their hair set. Monty reaches across and pours more Blue Nun into a wine glass beside his empty pint pot. Then he carries on talking to Albert in hushed tones. Rita finishes a slice of Black Forest gateaux and moans with delight.

CONNIE
It's alright, innit?

RITA
And that steak...

CONNIE
(whispering)
It's Monty, insists we come here, you know... Long as 0.002Bni on' ItNE as 0.2 Tc 0.a4402' Tw (Ar

MONTY (CONT'D)

-when we get there. Don't be lured in. If they seem to be askin' you a question, just look at your notebook and I'll have it. Above all, if I nod, you nod.

PETER HOPKINS Ford's Head of Industrial Relations, late thirties, sits beside two other men, GRANT and JONES both middle aged, facing Monty, Albert, Rita and Connie. Rita glances at the clock. Four fifteen. A black suited PENTHOUSE STEWARDESS serves tea and coffee, no one says thank you except Rita. Finally-

GRANT

On a previous occasion, in a free vote, the girls agreed to the new grading structure-

ALBERT

They did not agree, however, as to where they would end up on it. Which is why we're sittin' round this table!

Silence again. Rita fidgets.

HOPKINS

Look. I understand what the girls are saying. I just don't think that they appreciate-

MONTY

I'd rather you didn't speak for the girls, Mr Hopkins... None of us here knows what's in their heads.

That comment makes Rita look across. She turns to Connie. Her eyes are firmly on her note pad still.

HOPKINS

The fact remains, there is a formal grievance procedure already in place. And the machinists' case will be heard. What we can't do, is let them jump the queue-
(Rita frowns)
-or every other Ford employee who is waiting on a decision, will want our blood!

MONTY

Peter. Look... You know me. I ain't got no axe to grind with Ford. Am I right or am I right?

HOPKINSy HOPKINSy Hwb bl Tj /fair1 0 0 1 262

MONTY (CONT'D)

-Let's cut to the chase, shall we? We'll agree to re-convene in two weeks time-

Albert stiffens. Rita looks appalled.

ALBERT

Monty?-

MONTY

Wait. Listen... We'll re-convene... and we'll come back down here again for the day... And at that point, you'll guarantee to look into the girls' complaint.

ALBERT

The thing is, Monty-

MONTY

That way... you can go back to your bosses and say the strike's off, 'cause of how you handled today's negotiations... and we can go back to the girls and say they're now your number one priority... In a few weeks time.

Hopkins glances at the other Ford men; counts to three.

HOPKINS

That seems very fair.

ALBERT

Yeah, well, I'm not sure the girls-

MONTY

The girls'll be fine! So long as they know they're not just gettin' fobbed off by the management: the unions's settin' the terms. That's what matters-

RITA (O.S.)

Bollocks!

All heads turn. And Rita blinks. But it's said. And she means it, she realises. She turns-

RITA (CONT'D)

I'm sorry Albert but... It is. Bollocks... Three hours, we've been sittin' here now and-

(to Monty)

"That's what matters to the girls?"
How're you qualified to talk about what matters? To us?

(MORE)

RITA (CONT'D)

(Looks to Connie who stares back amazed)

What matters is this-

She reaches into her bag and throws a pile of vinyl cuttings, of the kind we saw her machine at the start, in front of Hopkins.

RITA (CONT'D)

There. You put them together-
(spreads them out)

13 different bits. That makes up an head rest cover...

GRANT

Ford property, I believe-

RITA

Oh, get stuffed-

(to Hopkins; on track)

What matters is that we have to take them 13 different bits of material and imagine how they fit together... 'cause there ain't no template... and then we have to sew 'em, all free hand, into the finished article! Same with seat covers and door trim. And that is not unskilled work. Which is how you've re-graded us! Christ, you have to take an exam to get on our line-

HOPKINS

Please, Miss-

RITA

Mrs!... O' Grady.

HOPKINS

Mrs O' Grady, I understand your grievance. But-

RITA

Oh, no! No, no, no, no... Don't start with all that again; all that I appreciate, I sympathise... It ain't difficult: we're entitled to semi-skilled. And the wages what go with it-

(Hopkins makes to speak)

And!... as regards queue jumpin', we put this complaint in months ago-

(Albert is impressed)

-and you done nothin' about it. And we both know why you done nothin' n' all, don't we? 'Cause we're women and the women have never gone on strike. This is the first time we've even suggested it.

(MORE)

Which meant you thought you could keep ignorin' us... Well, hard bleedin' cheese, mate, 'cause it's too late now!

Albert's face. And Connie's.

RITA (CONT'D)

We're gonna do what we said we would. No more overtime and an immediate twenty four hour stoppage. And where it goes from here, that's up to you. Cause we only open our gobs when we mean it!

**
**

Rita stands. A moment. The others stand too, dazed. The meeting is clearly over.

28

EXT. FORD HEADQUARTERS, WARLEY - AFTERNOON

28

Rita drags on a cigarette by Albert's car, an old Ford Corsair. She looks worried. Connie is with her. She looks nervous too. The reason is about twenty yards away, by a phone box: Albert being railed at by Monty. After a moment Monty storms into the box and dials. Albert walks back.

ALBERT

He's calling Branch. Tellin' 'em what you said.

RITA

(nods)

He seems a bit...

She shrugs, awkwardly. They all look back to the phone box. Monty rants. Then Albert fixes Rita with a stare and points a spindly finger. And he grins.

ALBERT

I knew... I knew. Up there-
(taps head. She frowns)
I wanted clever, Rita. That's why I picked you.

(she is stunned)

Bringin' them cuttin's in, though... that was magnificent... I didn't expect that: you'd come prepared-

RITA

Oh, no. No. Grant was right. I was nickin' He' so (picked you.) Tj 7whe

ALBERT

Yeah. Well... All the same...

And he walks off with as much dignity as he can muster. At the car, he turns. He looks Rita in the eye.

ALBERT (CONT'D)
Leave Monty to me.

Rita is wrong footed by Albert's rapid re-focusing. Connie steps forward-

CONNIE
And what about the factory? The girls.
What you gonna say to them?

ALBERT
I'm not gonna say anythin', Con. You're in charge on the shop floor. They're your business.

He smiles and ducks down into his car. Connie turns to Rita.

CONNIE
You can speak to 'em. It's your bloody fault.

She crosses to the car, too. And we see she is hiding a smile, too. She clambers into the car. On Rita. Worried.

29 INT. RIVER PLANT - AFTERNOON 29

The girls are all hard at work when the hooter sounds. Brenda and Eileen start to make themselves decent but then stop when they see who it is: Rita, standing on a bench, looking out over them. Connie is beside her, at ground level. A beat. Rita hesitates, glances to Connie, then looks back again. She shouts:

RITA
Everybody out!

A huge roar and the women push to the exit.

30 EXT. WESTMINSTER - DAY 30

Big Ben booms out and a new day dawns.

31 INT. BARBARA CASTLE'S WESTMINSTER OFFICES - DAY 31

Another pair of bare feet, the stockinged soles of which scratch an itch beneath a large desk. Then, we see a sign on the desk: SECRETARY OF STATE FOR EMPLOYMENT AND PRODUCTIVITY and behind it, the petite figure of a woman

BARBARA CASTLE

Now, I realise this is my first day in the job... And it may be that I'm missing something here-

She speaks in a thick Lancashire accent which has poshed up over the years.

BARBARA CASTLE (CONT'D)

But the facts themselves seem very clear. And they are, that in the last year alone, in the United Kingdom, there were 26,000 strikes. With 5 million working days lost as a result. The affect of this on the country's productivity and balance of payments has been nothing short of catastrophic and yet... the management and the unions seem completely unable to alter this picture... Now why is that exactly?

She looks up. And is confronted by two people: her private secretaries. They are men. And they stare back at her blankly.

BARBARA CASTLE (CONT'D)

Don't all shout at once... gentlemen.

32 INT. CONNIE'S HOUSE - DAY

32

The front room of a small terrace; simpler and less plush than Rita's home. George sits in an armchair by the fire. He looks pale. The newspaper is folded on his lap. He blinks, a pronounced tic. And then Connie hurries in from the kitchen.

CONNIE

Here you go-

She carries a fizzy glass of something. She holds it out to him.

**

CONNIE (CONT'D)

Down in one-

He takes it. But then he doesn't drink it. He places it on a small table beside him and sits back, picking up the paper as if she isn't there.

CONNIE (CONT'D)

You gotta drink it, George...

He looks at her. Surprised. Zones in again.

GEORGE

Yeah. Sorry...

He downs it; winces.

CONNIE

It's the latest stuff, that.
It's... He... reckons you'll really notice a difference.

They stare at each other. He manages a smile. Then-

GEORGE

You gotta go, have you?

**

She holds his gaze and forces a beaming smile.

**

CONNIE

It's important.
(grabs her jacket)
You know where I'll be...
(turns)
Just don't you be late.

**
**
**
**
**

She smiles, determined. He nods, unconviningly. Then she's off. George watches the closed door.

33 EXT. RIVER PLANT - DAY

33

A great mob of the striking women are gathered by the locked River Plant gates. Several of them wave placards and banners, excited, calling out to the many men who are cycling into the main plant-

BLOKE

Up the strikers... Speciall y you Brenda-

SANDRA

They're amazi n', aren' t they? Me best

EI LEEN

This is a demonstration, you know, Sandra-

SANDRA

And I'm demonstrati n' . . .

HOPKINS

We've got another dispute, I'm afraid-

38 INT. FORD HEADQUARTERS, MICHIGAN - MORNING 38

TOOLEY

Another one? Who is it this week?

He turns from the tank. That is new.

39 EXT. RIVER PLANT - AFTERNOON 39

Baby Come Back by The Equals blasts from a transistor radio around which several of the girls dance. A crate of beer lies on the floor. Deck chairs have now been found, also, and many of the women sit in them, eating ice cream wafers which Eileen dispenses from a large box. A bin wagon passes and the driver slows, leans out-

DRIVER

It's a lot more fun on your picket than ours usually are. I might join you later.

MONICA

It's women only, love.

The girls laugh, the bin wagon pips and accelerates away, swerving past a van which pulls up beside the women. Written on the van's side is:

The door opens and Brenda gets out. She has several brown paper bags in her arms.

BRENDA

Tea's up! Bananas, apples, pears!

The girls rush over to help themselves. Then from the van steps Mr Horovitz, about twenty five and VERY good looking. He also looks, however, exhausted. He removes Brenda's bike from the back of the van and places it on the side. Brenda waves to him.

BRENDA (CONT'D)

Thanks for the ride, Arthur!

He nods, embarrassed, clambers in and zooms off. The girls are open mouthed.

EILEEN

Brenda!... You never-

BRENDA

Why? He's gorgeous... And just as I was leavin' with the fruit, he goes: "I believe all the workers of the world should unite." And I thought to meself, I can help you with that one straight away, mate.

She bites an apple and sits. Suddenly Connie smiles.

CONNIE

Yeah, well, much as I'd like to hang around, discussin' solidarity for another eight hours... Me date's here-

George crosses the road. He looks immaculate, wearing a suit, his hair neatly Brycleemed. A couple of whistles as he stops. He smiles. But he still looks slightly hollow eyed.

RITA

Don't you scrub up nice... What's goin' on?

CONNIE

(thrilled)
You made it.

GEORGE

It's our anniversary...

RITA

What?

A chorus of the girls calling out Connie's name, cooing and clapping.

RITA (CONT'D)

Why didn't you say something-

CONNIE

I didn't wanna make a fuss...

(brightening)
So, say "up yours" to the management from me, will you?! We're off.

She leaves to shouts of 'bye' and 'enjoy yourselves'.

BRENDA

Right. Who's for a game of pontoon?-

She produces cards. Just as there is an immense rumble of thunder. Moans from the girls.

EILEEN

I knew it was too good to last-

SANDRA

It'll be fine-

And the rain comes. Squeals from the girls as they rush about and gather up stuff.

MONICA

What we gonna do? Pubs aren't open-

Rita, gathering placards, looks at her watch.

RITA

I dunno... We have done a full day-

SANDRA

And I promised me mum I'd cook tea.

RITA

(grinning)

Sod it! We registered the protest... Hooter's blowin'

The girls cheer. The whole group runs around, packing, shouting hurried good byes and dispersing.

BRENDA

Hey and Rita! -

(Rita looks round)

Well done!

(Rita frowns)

Was your gob got us here, wannit?

Brenda leaves. Beat. Rita smiles.

40

INT. CAFE - DAY

40

Albert's POV as he watches Rita struggling with the placards, he bangs on the window to get her attention, she comes over to the doorway of the café.

RITA

Albert-

ALBERT

Just been round your house.

He wipes his face with his hanky. Rita watches him.

RITA

Why?

ALBERT

Cause I thought you'd a gone home ages ago...I'm lucky if I can get the lads to hold out the full hour-

Albert notices the placards and smiles. He then looks to Rita who stares at him expectantly:

ALBERT (CONT'D)
Oh...I wanted a quick chat, was all...
(indicates cafe)
Fancy a cuppa?

RITA
I can't. Sorry...I told Graham I'd meet him from school.

ALBERT
(checks time)
You got twenty minutes 'fore they tip out, ain't you?

She frowns; that's rather insistent. He looks up from his watch, meeting her gaze. He smiles.

ALBERT (CONT'D)
I'm buyin'.

41 INT. CAFE - DAY

41

Rita stares as Albert spoons three sugars into his tea. He stirs and looks at her. She waits, a little edgy. Then he adds one more. She makes to speak-

He stirs again-

RITA
Albert, come on! Cough it up!

He looks her in the eye.

ALBERT
Alright...You won't win.

RITA
What?

ALBERT
This battle...You're gonna lose-

RITA
But...we got a case. You said so. We-

ALBERT
Oh, don't get us wrong. You might get Ford to back down over the gradin' thing but...I'm talkin' big picture. And in that case, you ain't even in the frame-

RITA
(irritated)
What do you mean we're not-

ALBERT
-'Cause this dispute's got nothin' to do with what skill level you are! Ford's decided to give you less money 'cause they can... They're allowed to pay women a lower wage than men.

She stares at him.

ALBERT (CONT'D)
And not just Ford neither. The whole country, Rita. Women gettin' less... because they're women...

She stares at him. She's already there but daren't say it. He shrugs.

ALBERT (CONT'D)
You'll always come second, you'll always be dependent, you'll always be fightin' for the scraps from the top table as long as-

RITA
-we ain't got equal pay...

ALBERT
Oh, Rita, if you knew how thick most of the blokes I deal with are...

She stares. It makes sense. But she's scared. She looks away. A second. She looks back, a new thought in her head-

RITA
Why? Why you bothered about us gettin' the same as the men?

He stares; knows Rita will accept only the whole truth. He smiles fondly.

ALBERT
I got brought up by me mum... Me and me brothers. Me dad cleared off when we were nippers, so...
(nods)
She worked all her life at Ranley and Coopers. Ball bearin's... She paid aunt Lilly for lookin' after us durin' the day and...

He stares, forcing back the emotion. Then to Rita:

ALBERT (CONT'D)

...it was hard. Especially cause she got paid less than half what the blokes in the factory was gettin'. For doin' the same work... But there was never any question it could be different... Not for her.

(smiles, fondly at Rita)

You remind me of her, actually, Rita... You got heart and... brains and(frowns)

-and someone has to stop those exploitin' bastards from gettin' away with what they been doin' for years!

He looks back, his eyes filled with water.

ALBERT (CONT'D)

And you can. You can. If you make your battle focus on the right target.

Rita stares, suddenly energised. But she's scared, too.

RITA

What about Connie? She's Shop Steward. We voted for her-

**

ALBERT

And she's magnificent, Rita! At organizin'. And implementin'. But this needs... a leader. To inspire the girls. To make the issues clear. And that ain't her. Not at the moment-

**
**
**

(Rita makes to speak)

And she knows it. 'Cause I've already spoke to her.

**

(Rita is shocked)

And she's more than happy to let you have a go... More than.

(touches her arm reassuringly)

Look... Cc -0.034 Tw (R .04 308.16 Tm 0.000 Tc py to)) T

She turns. A brand new Ford escort is parked by the kerb, and LISA is poking her head out of the driver's side window. Rita recognises her immediately.

LISA (CONT'D)

We have met. In the corridor outside Mr Clarke's class.

(Rita stares. Lisa shoves open the passenger door)

Please-

Rita glances at the other mothers and suddenly feels a surge of opportunity. With her nose in the air, she hurries over and climbs in.

43

INT. CAR - DAY

43

Rita arranges herself.

RITA

I'm drippin'...

LISA

It's fine. Really...I've been hoping to bump into you for a day or two actually.

(Rita stiffens)

I wondered if you'd care to sign a letter...? To the headmaster. I'm making a formal complaint; about Mr Clarke's use of the cane-

RITA

What?

LISA

He seems to think my son's-

RITA

You mean...You were there for the same reason as me?

LISA

Yes...He was...indiscreet enough to mention why you'd been in...I think he was suggesting something hormonal was happening about the school -

(bitter)

We should all calm down a bit.

RITA

-He just fobbed me off. He...I mean...I'd got it all worked out in me head; what I was gonna say only-

LISA

Oh, you don't talk to Mr Clarke. You listen...

(scoffs)

He's a bully...That's why he beats them all -

Lisa stops. Rita stares at her impassioned face. And relief floods her body.

RITA
You got a pen, then?

Lisa passes across the letter and pen. Rita signs. Hands everything back.

RITA (CONT'D)
-That first time, when I saw you...
(Lisa frowns, confused)
You're bein' polite, not mentionin' it, I know you are, only...I was upset. As I say and...I never use that sort of language normally.

LISA
Don't you? I called Mr Clarke a complete cock...

Rita is stunned; Lisa smiles. Children are now pouring out of the school.

LISA (CONT'D)
Here they are...

Lisa gets out. Rita, too.

44

EXT. SCHOOL - DAY

44

Lisa has an umbrella which she erects and then she moves over to Rita who stands beside her, beneath it. Rita glances across and suddenly, emboldened-

RITA
That dress-
(Lisa turns, frowns)
I seen it. In Vogue...It really suits you.

LISA
Thank you...It's Biba.

A second. Lisa looks back to the children. Rita does too. And her chest swells ever so slightly.

45

INT. RITA'S HOUSE - DAY

45

Rita places a mug of tea on a bedside table. Eddie is dozing but now he opens one eye. Rita slips back into bed, her red, nylon nightie crackling, and props herself up against the headboard.

EDDIE
 Ta, I love...
 (frowns)
 What time is it?

RITA
 Six-

EDDIE
 We got another half an hour-

**

RITA
 (distracted)
 Yeah. Sorry. I was awake anyway, so...

She trails off. A beat. He turns on his side.

EDDIE
 Well, now you are... Shame to waste an opportunity-

He nibbles her hip. She giggles.

RITA
 Eddie!

He pulls himself up her body and kisses her neck. She's not really in the mood, though.

EDDIE
 What?... What's up?

RITA
 Nothin'... I'm... I got stuff on me mind...
 (she turns; dare she?)
 Which... I didn't say nothin' about last night 'cause I wanted to get straight in me own head first-

EDDIE
 Get what straight?

She looks at him for a long moment.

RITA
 I've decided to get a bit more involved.
 In the dispute.

EDDI E

BRENDA

Bloody hell Sandra, I think you've had a bit've shrinkage in the wash-

SANDRA

They're hot pants. They're Mary Quant's-

BRENDA

Well you should give 'em back to her. They look fuckin' painful -

RITA

I think they look nice. Long as you can breathe-

SANDRA

Course, I can... And it's what Brenda said, innit: it ain't Knightsbridge... Dagenham. So if you're gonna get spotted, you have to stand out that bit more. Well, I am doin'...

She walks off. Brenda watches her, then looks to Rita.

BRENDA

Come on...

She sets off after Sandra but just as suddenly stops and turns back.

**

BRENDA (CONT'D)

Wannit great, though? Yesterday.

**
**

RITA

(surprised)
Bei n' on strike?

**

BRENDA

Yeah. Chance to be different... Was lovely.

**

(smiles)

Felt like it all night.

**

RITA

What did you do?

BRENDA

Met the veg man, got blind drunk, then went back to his place.

**

RITA

(confused)
But-

**

BRENDA

Oh, it was different, Rita...
(winks)
Just ask him.

**
**
**

She happily wanders in. Rita scoffs and follows.

47 INT. RIVER PLANT, CORRIDOR - DAY

47

Rita, a hint of a smile still on her face, walks towards the factory floor, pulling her overalls around her waist as she goes.

BUT then she stops. The notice board is directly ahead. On it, MACHINIST rates of pay:

MEN: £19 7s 6d

WOMEN: £13 4s 2d

Rita stares. She looks determined. Then uneasy.

48 INT. FACTORY FLOOR - MORNING

48

Rita walks onto the floor. She stares at Connie's space: still unoccupied. She begins to thread up her machine. Then she grabs some cuttings. And finally Connie rushes in-

CONNIE

I'm here! Just... Christ-

She grabs her bowl and places it on the floor. Then she pulls her overalls down and she stops - as she sees Rita staring at her.

RITA

Connie, listen. I-

CONNIE

(shaking head)

Rita-

RITA

No! I have to say it! For me!

(stares at Connie)

If I was to get involved with Albert, Con, it's only cause... I got a gob on me... You're the heart beat of this place. You always will be.

Connie smiles, fondly. Then:

CONNIE

Rita... Look at me. All at six's and seven's... Again-

(quietly)

I got enough on me plate at the moment, without takin' on the whole of British Industry...

(nods)

You can do it. And you should.

Rita stares at Connie; makes to speak. But the hooter sounds and the machines start up. The women smile and get down to work.

49 INT. RIVER PLANT - DAY

49

Rita finishes an item, then notices Sandra, tongue out, carefully completing a piece. She is pleased. Then the hooter goes and the girls look across, on the point of getting dressed. But it is Brian, so they simply continue. He looks frustrated. Then scared; as he realises he must enter anyway. This he does and at every bench the women jiggle their bits, wolf whistle and generally make life hell for him.

BRENDA

Hello Brian... That a cotton bob you got in your pocket?... Or is it an hard on?

He reaches into a sack he is carrying and shoves a letter straight at Brenda. She frowns but soon all the girls have them. Rita opens her envelope and reads. She looks furious and then catches Connie's eye. A second and Rita marches off.

As she arrives at the door, Albert appears, in his Ford overalls, coming for her decision. She marches past him, thunder on her face, glancing once at him as she strides on. He grins.

**

**

**

ALBERT

(to himself)

That a yes, then?

**

**

And then, he sets off after her.

50 INT. CANTEEN - AFTERNOON

50

Monty Taylor, in his suit and Union badge, stares at the letter. Albert is by his side. They are surrounded by the girls.

MONTY

Ignore it.

RITA

Ignore it?

MONTY

Standard issue. Day after a walk out.

RITA

Have you seen the language?

(Eileen and Brenda nod)

"Your flagrant and aggressive disregard for the existing complaints procedure"... Tone of that-

MONTY

They don't mean it.

RITA

So why they sayin' it...?

MONTY

'Cause... that's how we've always done it.
All the other strikes. It's like the rules-

Oh, no!
RITA
(snatches letter back)
(MORE)

RITA (CONT'D)

We're not playin' that game... We ain't your men, remember. We're us. And we won't be addressed in this manner.

(Cheer of agreement. Rita stares at the girls)

All those in favour of not only maintainin' but increasin' our current industrial action by goin' to an immediate all out stoppage until an equal pay settlement is reached-

MONTY

What?

Monty has spoken for them all. Mutterings of "equal pay?" are heard everywhere. Rita turns to the girls:

RITA

Well, why not?

(stares at the trusting faces of the girls)

That's what this dispute is really about, innit?!

Rita suddenly points to the lad seen earlier. He sweeps out the canteen now.

RITA (CONT'D)

They've put us on the same rate as Brushin' Brian! The lowest rate in the whole factory... despite the fact that we have got considerable skill.

(A few mumbled "trues")

And there's only one possible reason for that... 'Cause we're women, and in the work place women get paid less than men- no matter what skill they got!

(More support. Agreement.

Shouts now.)

Which is why we gotta demand that from now on, there's a level playin' field and rates of pay which reflect the job you do, not whether you've got a dick or not-

(cheers of support)

This strike is about one thing and one thing only: Fairness!

(To Monty; points)

Equal pay or nothin'!

(huge cheer; Rita turns back to the women)

All those in favour?

(every hand goes up)

Everybody out!!!!

Another cheer and Rita walks to the exit, stopping by the door as a wave of the girls passes her and empties the building. Monty looks panicked and glares at Albert. Albert shrugs with a wry smile.

ALBERT

Nothin' to do with me.

The women sweep out.

51 OMITTED 51

52 INT. HOPKINS OFFICE - AFTERNOON 52

Hopkins looks stunned. He stands beside a window held open by a block of wood.

HOPKINS

An all out stoppage?!

Monty fidgets before Hopkins' desk.

MONTY

Also... The specifics of the strike... It's widened out a bit-

53 INT. HOPKINS OFFICE - AFTERNOON 53

Hopkins appears in his doorway. He is ashen. He looks at his secretary, then he mutters to himself:

HOPKINS

Christ...

54 INT. FORD HEADQUARTER'S, MICHIGAN - MORNING 54

Tooley listens on the phone. He is deadpan.

TOOLEY

Shit.

55 INT. UNION OFFICES - EVENING 55

BARTHOLOMEW

Fuckin' Ada!

CLIVE BARTHOLOMEW, sixty, bearded, stares at Monty. Another middle aged man, ROGERS, also glares at him.

BARTHOLOMEW (CONT'D)
Equal pay! What were you thinkin', Monty?

MONTY
It wasn't me... It was Albert. He... He went behind me back-

ROGERS Really-

MONTY
He's a loose canon. He-(grasping at straws)
I got him with me... You wanna haul someone over the coals, he's your man;
the bloody trouble maker.

A beat. Bartholomew and Rogers exchange a glance. Then Bartholomew nods to Monty.

56 INT. UNION OFFICES, ANTE CHAMBER - EVENING 56

Albert, still in Ford overalls, sits on a chair waiting.
Monty enters. He looks at Albert and sighs theatrically.

MONTY
I tried to protect you Albert. But you are gonna get such a fuckin' bollockin'...

Albert considers Monty and nods. He stands.

57 INT. UNION OFFICES - EVENING 57

Albert sits on another chair in the middle of the room.
Bartholomew paces up and down for a moment. Then-

BARTHOLOMEW
This is awkward, Albert, you know that, don't you? It jeopardises a whole... raft of other negotiations the unions already at loggerheads with the management over-

ROGERS
Not to mention protocol. There's ways of goin' on strike. Right ways and wrong ways-

BARTHOLOMEW
Look... Comrade... Basically, you encouragin' these women... to get all militant-

ROGERS

-shifts the resources away from the blokes...who let's be straight, are the ones at the coal face-

BARTHOLOMEW

We ain't unsympathetic! But...as a union...we have to remember who comes first...The Communist Party. And

RITA

And that's a tactic, not just the Ford management, but all managements have exploited, year after year: basin' huge profits on a wage system which is as corrupt as it is unchallenged-

**
**
**
**
**

A couple of men glance at each other and nod; fair point.
 HEADLINE:

RITA (CONT'D) **
 Which begs the question, why? Why is it  like that? And the answer is, us! Because  we've never said no. **

62 INT. FORD MAIN PLANT - DAY 62 **

In the more modern main plant, we see Albert, then Dave who is holding up a copy of the Dagenham and Redbridge Echo. BANNER HEADLINE: Then we hear Rita's voice, gliding, over the picture. **

RITA **
 We've meekly stepped forwards, despite  what we've seen with our mothers and our  grandmothers and we've taken our pay  packets and we've tugged our forelocks  and we've said "thank you very much." **
 Well, no more! The time has come for all  women to say: Enough! We do not accept  this! **

We hear applause. And see Eddie, smiling bashfully, as a picture of Rita, campaigning, is pointed out to him, beneath the banner. **

63 EXT. TOWN HALL - DAY 63

The applause fades as Rita steps down from the platform. She is immediately approached by several reporters and other union officials.

ALBERT
 Rita...

She turns. Albert indicates a young man who stands away from the crush.

ALBERT (CONT'D)
 There's a bloke here from The Times.

Rita tries not to react. MUSIC ENDS

64 EXT. BARBECUE - DAY 64

A copy of The Times sits on a recliner beside the crystal clear water of an outdoor swimming pool into which children are leaping. It is red hot and the vast garden of JEB HARDEY, sixty, boss of Ford America, looks Panavision wide and technicolour bright.

His senior management team are with him, gathered around a barbecue at which he cooks, while their wives deal with the children.

KRONNFELD

I thought your boy said he could handle this?

A man with a leathery face and buzz cut hair stares at Tooley who sighs.

KRONNFELD (CONT'D)

And do we even know what we're dealing with here? Socialist Workers Party;
(MORE)

Workers Revolutionary Party; Revolutionary Communist Party? . . . Who's she with?

BARBARA CASTLE (CONT'D)
As of 5pm last night, there were 403 strikes in progress nationally. With a further fifty set to commence today-

She stops suddenly. Because Wilson has stopped. Because the dog is clearly about to take a crap. He looks at it fondly. Mrs Castle winces-

BARBARA CASTLE (CONT'D)
It's anarchy, Harold!

He hears her aggrieved tone; turns, awkwardly.

HAROLD WILSON
And I'm not saying I won't legislate-

He stops; looks back down. The dog has finished already.
He frowns.

HAROLD WILSON (CONT'D)
It's always white when he goes to the toilet. But he never eats anything white.
(Mrs Castle is stunned)
Mary gives him the odd fruit gum-

BARBARA CASTLE
Prime Minister-

He blinks; he hears his title; as he was supposed to... But the dog now trots on. Wilson gladly follows. And Mrs Castle, too! She will not be deflected-

BARBARA CASTLE (CONT'D)
-You asked me to do this job; you appointed me-

HAROLD WILSON
You're very capable, Barbara-

BARBARA CASTLE
I know I am! Provided I get some support!
(sinks again, yanks her foot free and catches up)
You must introduce new bills; which give me the power to regulate the Unions! I can't get the county back to work otherwise-

HAROLD WILSON
I understand that...
(she looks hopeful)
But all I'm saying...
(her heart sinks)

-is that we have to acknowledge that without the unions there would be no Labour Party...

One of her undersecretaries leans in.

UNDERSECRETARY

They currently provide 80% of Party funding, Minister. It's a very close relationship-

She stops; so does he.

BARBARA CASTLE

Young man! I was a member of the Trades Union Movement while you were still at your mother's breast... So unless you have something to add which goes beyond the blindingly obvious, I'd prefer it if you kept quiet!

The man remains rooted to the spot, terrified, while Mrs Castle totters on, catching up with Wilson.

BARBARA CASTLE (CONT'D)

Harold, no body supports the Unions more than me. But the situation is out of control -

(shouts)

The tail is wagging the dog!

This stops him. He looks back, cornered. But then he smiles.

HAROLD WILSON

Jack Scamp!

(her face falls)

He's your man. Any... impasse... get Jack in. Sits them all round a table; beer and

66 OMITTED 66 **

67 INT. TUBE - DAY 67 **

A city gent, in suit and bowler, stands silently with many other commuters on their regular run into the City. He looks uneasy. And as we pass along his carriage, we see the girls crushed at its far end, chatting excitedly, their protest paraphernalia causing considerable disruption. The city gent looks distastefully away. But then he leaps and his hand goes to his backside. Someone has pinched his arse. Then we see Brenda, close by. She smiles sweetly.

67A EXT. LONDON TUBE - DAY 67A **

The girls emerge from the tube, blinking into the bright sunlight. They are gossiping madly, excited and some, a little overawed.

RITA **

Come on, then, girls! Get yourselves organised! **

EILEEN **

Anyone fancy a Wimpy?... I'm starvin' - **

Rita turns, distracted- **

MONICA **

We ain't got time to see the sites, have we? **

RITA **

No, we have not! **

Now Sandra appears in tiny shorts and a skimpy top. She looks round, urgently. **

SANDRA **

Where's all the press, then? **

CONNIE **

We ain't there yet! **

BRENDA **

We gotta get to parliament first, you silly sod- **

RITA **

(frustrated) Exactly! **

BRENDA **

So?... Which way is it? **

Rita looks round. Then she sighs, having to come clean-

**

RITA
(to girls)
I think it's this way, isn't it?

**

The girls all look in different directions. Clearly no one knows.

68

EXT. PARLIAMENT - DAY

68

The girls stand on a small lawned area outside the Houses of Parliament. They unroll banners, hold up placards and huddle into a group.

**

MONICA
(worried)
Rita!

**

**

Rita looks up from where she's unrolling a banner. Monica is nodding across the lawn. Rita follows her gaze and sees a dozen press men now approaching. Rita stands.

**

**

**

CONNIE
Go on, Rita... Tell 'em what's what-

And Rita nods, stepping forwards to meet them. Eileen then leans into Connie.

EILEEN
I can't help thinkin' some of us are here for different reasons than others-

**

She nods to the other side of the lawn where Sandra is posing for two photographers who have approached from a different direction. Brenda grins.

**

**

BRENDA
Naah. Fair play to her... she never gives up.

**

The press shove closer, asking questions. A second and Sandra is back, shoving in next to Connie-

SANDRA
It's actually quite interesting, politics. When you get down to it...

**

**

69 INT. BARBARA CASTLE'S WESTMINSTER OFFICES - DAY 69

Mrs Castle sighs. She is leafing through more reports of industrial unrest. Then she becomes aware of the pips outside-

70 EXT. PARLIAMENT - DAY 70

Interviews over, the girls are gathered beneath Rita's banner. Another car toots...and another. The girls wave. Men shout encouragement.

CONNIE

It's unbelievable...I never thought we'd get this backing-

More pips and shouts. A driver leans from the cab of a passing van and calls across.

DRIVER

Here, I finish work at four. Give us a call!

His mate laughs. The girls wave back, blithely. More pips and Rita frowns. She looks up, at the banner she holds. A moment.

RITA

Girls...I think we're not entirely unfurled.

All of them look up to the banner. It says: WE WANT SEX

71 INT. BARBARA CASTLE'S WHITEHALL OFFICES - DAY 71

Mrs Castle looks out of her window. Sees the banner.

BARBARA CASTLE

I know the feeling.

She walks back to her stressful work. While outside we see Connie help Rita frantically untwist the banner which is now lain on the grass. WE WANT SEX EQUALITY is revealed. Rita, flustered, gestures for the girls to regroup. Most are giggling.

72

INT. DOCK CLUB - DAY

72

A TV

REPORTER

Have they been in touch? About doing some modelling work for them.

Laughter from the reporters. Rita smiles.

RITA

I prefer to concentrate on the issues of the strike-

A PHOTO FLASHES. RITA TURNS HER HEAD TOWARDS IT. THEN THE TV PICTURE CUTS TO OUTSIDE THE AMERICAN EMBASSY.

TV

And for the first time we notice George, sitting on a stool by the bar. He stares at his half of mild, not looking at Dave or Eddie.

GEORGE (CONT'D)
Gone on long enough now.

EDDIE
(Laughing)
I don't think they're deliberately draggin' it out, George-

GEORGE
It's alright for you and him. Two wages in the house. I've got me war pension and I've got what she earns. That's it... I can't afford a bastard strike.

EDDIE
I know that... And they'll settle it; soon as they can.

George says nothing more. Eddie nods and goes.

74 EXT. LIVERPOOL FACTORY - DAY 74

A coach pulls up outside a factory gate. On it is written: FORD, HALEWOOD. Rita gets off. Several of the girls follow.

75 EXT. LIVERPOOL FACTORY - DAY 75

Rita stands on a soap box outside the main factory. She is sweating, passionate, addressing a crowd of women.

RITA
-You're doin' the same work for Ford, here in Liverpool, that we're doin' for 'em down in Dagenham. So you know that our job is skilled... But I'm askin' you to think beyond that... I'm askin' you to strike now for all women, not just machinists, until every one of us gets fairness and is entitled to the same pay as men!... Will all those in favour, put their hands in the air now, please-

They do. Rita beams, delighted.

76 INT. RITA'S HOUSE - EARLY EVENING 76

The kids sit at the dining room table. Smoke spills from the kitchen. They glance at each other. Look slightly worried.

77 INT. RITA'S HOUSE, KITCHEN - EARLY EVENING 77

The kitchen is a mess as Eddie, sweat dripping from his nose, tries to fry a piece of liver. A huge flame leaps up from under the pan as spitting oil hits the gas. Eddie leaps back, cursing, then goes back to the food, his jaw tight.

78 INT. RITA'S HOUSE - EARLY EVENING 78

Eddie drops newspaper wrapped fish and chips onto Sharon's plate. Sharon glances at Graham. She is struggling not to snigger as she undoes the package and takes a chip. Graham laughs out loud as he receives his bundle of food. Eddie looks thoroughly pissed off.

80 INT. BUS - EVENING 80

The girls drive back from Halewood. Rita, sitting at the front, with Connie beside her, glances out over burnished countryside, a low red sun throbbing in the sky. Across the aisle, also at the front, Sandra has a transistor radio on her lap, a single ear piece in. She starts to

SANDRA

Once upon a time, there was a tavern, where we used to raise a glass or two-(Brenda, next to her, looks

Remember how we laughed away the hours-

Brenda starts to sing. And then Connie joins in.

BRENDA, CONNIE

Think of all the great things we would do-

Rita sings. And others, too. a0gi n' As-

INT. HOPKINS HOUSE - NIGHT

82

Hopkins passes into a modern, late sixties, detached house. Tool ey follows.

TOOLEY

Really, I don't want to be any trouble.

HOPKINS

Honestly...Least I can do...Let me take your coat.

Hopkins wife appears in a pinny. Lisa.

HOPKINS (CONT'D)

Lisa...This is Robert Tool ey-

TOOLEY

Delighted to meet you at last.

LISA

Likewise.

They shake. Then Hopkins hands Tool ey's coat to Lisa.

TOOLEY

I was saying to Peter; I'm quite happy to eat later; at the hotel -

HOPKINS

Nonsense! She loves to cook.

(glances at Lisa)

Don't you?.. Just relax. Have a drink.

I'll run you back when we're finished.

Hopkins passes his coat to Lisa too and ushers Tooley through into the sitting room. Lisa looks at the coats and then hangs the sitting room coats

84

INT. HOPKINS HOUSE - NIGHT

84

Lisa clears away. Bottles of beer sit on the table.

TOOLEY

Thank you.

HOPKINS

Can you bring some brandy glasses back in with you?

She nods and smiles. Then turns to go.

TOOLEY

Lisa... You must have a quite head on your shoulders... Peter tells me you read history. At Cambridge-

LISA

Yeah-

She nods, proudly but then suddenly becomes aware of the plates in her hand. She puts them on the sideboard.

TOOLEY

So whadda you make of our little problem; over at the factory?

(nods to Peter)

Think maybe he's a bit too much velvet glove and not enough iron fist?

She seems uncertain, then shrugs, relaxing.

LISA

I don't actually. Just the opposite. Look at Vauxhall. They don't appear to have any problem with the unions and that seems to me because General Motors have a much more collaborative approach to management. Whereas at Ford, you seem only to deal with the unions because you have to... You tolerate them. And as a result they're much more entrenched and aggressive in the way that they deal with you.

Tooley looks at her. Then he smiles.

TOOLEY

That's a very... progressive point of view, Lisa.

(turns to alarmed Hopkins)

Isn't it?

He stares at Hopkins, his expression at once benign but threatening. Hopkins hesitates, then turns to Lisa. He smiles, but it's a fragile thing. Then-

HOPKINS
Cheese.

LISA
What?

HOPKINS
We've...got some Stilton...Why don't you...get that out?...Some grapes.

Lisa is wrong footed. She looks to Tooley for support. He doesn't meet her eye.

TOOLEY
That'd be terrific.

Hopkins smiles, relieved. Lisa colours; she is dismissed. She picks up the plates, glances at her husband and leaves the room.

85 INT. KITCHEN - NIGHT

85

Lisa drops the plates into the sink and leans back against the draining board, trembling. On the table is a copy of the Daily Mail, it's headline: FORD WOMEN FIGHT ON. Beneath it is a picture of a rally and a woman speaking out. There is something familiar about the woman. Lisa crosses and picks up the paper. Her face - as she sees it is Rita.

86 EXT/INT. RITA'S HOUSE - DAY

86

Rita checks the temperature on the oven. Then she crosses to her bag which is on a chair beside the set kitchen table and removes her purse. It is empty.

Her jaw tightens and she crosses to a cupboard near the door. Inside is a metal box, full of shoe polish, cloths and brushes. Also in there is a puncture repair kit. She opens this and reveals some crumpled notes and a few coins. She takes some of the cash, not all, and shoves it into her wallet. She grabs her bag and hurries into the hall.

87 EXT/INT. RITA'S HOUSE - BALCONY - DAY

87

Graham is coming downstairs.

RITA
It's in the oven. Don't burn yourself-

He wordlessly moves into the kitchen. And Rita pulls on a jacket. She turns and stops. Sharon is there. Her hair is in pig tails. One bunch is massively bigger than the other, while one is a tangled mess.

RITA (CONT'D)

What happened?

SHARON

Dad.

Rita stares and goes towards her. Then she stops.

RITA

I gotta go see Albert. Just tell him to have another go.

Sharon slips into the kitchen and Rita ties on a head scarf as Eddie comes down the stairs. She nods to the kitchen.

RITA (CONT'D)

's all ready...
(crosses to placards against wall)
You're alright gettin' 'em off to school, aren't you?

He watches her pick up the placards.

EDDIE

Course.

She turns. Immediately he moves towards the kitchen.

RITA

Eddie-
(he stops)
Everything's okay, innit?

He stares at her, then shrugs.

EDDIE

Yeah. Why wouldn't it be?

She smiles, relieved and moves to the door. He watches her, then fingers the collar of his shirt.

EDDIE (CONT'D)

This is me last one.

RITA

What?

EDDIE

Shirt. I just noticed.

RITA

(wrong footed)
Yeah... Sorry. I missed washin' Monday.
I'll do it tonight.

He nods. And walks into the kitchen. A second. Rita stares at the empty doorway then leaves.

88

INT. DAGENHAM DOCK CLUB - DAY

88

The girls are queuing up for strike pay which Albert hands out from a table near the stage. There is much banter between the girls.

Ri ta passes Al bert a sheet wi th names on i t and removes one covered wi th si gnatures.

ALBERT
Thanks Ri ta-

A young woman steps forward-

INT. HOPKINS OFFICE - DAY

89

Monty stands with Grant and Hopkins. He tries to look confident. In fact, he's uneasy. The whole room is. Then, suddenly, the door bursts open and Tooley strides in, a file under one arm. He slings it onto a far desk as Hopkins tries to assert control.

HOPKINS

Monty. This is Mr Tooley. He-

TOOLEY

I need you to break the strike for me, Mr Taylor... As soon as you can.

Monty glances at Hopkins who also looks a little surprised. Monty scoffs.

MONTY

I'm not sure you appreciate whose side I'm on-

TOOLEY

Oh, yes, I do. I've been going through your file-

MONTY

File?

TOOLEY

You're on your side, Mr Taylor.

MONTY

I beg your pardon!? I -
(to Hopkins)

I don't have to listen to this-

He moves towards the door

TOOLEY

Keep going! And six months from now, your union won't exist.

Monty stops. Despite himself. He turns back.

TOOLEY (CONT'D)

Industry can't afford to pay women the same rates as men. Fact. If it's forced to, it will collapse under the extra wage bill, its workers will be laid off, their union subscriptions will disappear and so, finally, will the unions which collect them. That's you... Monty.

TOOLEY (CONT'D)

Which means you will no longer have a reason to visit these gentlemen here via-(flips open file)

The Berni Inn, is it?... The Queen's Head, The Chequers-

(looks up)

Jeez, that's a lot've restaurants... Not to mention the all expenses paid trips to the party conferences. Union conferences-(spots something)

To Paris! The Gallic rank and file. Good on you, Monty!

Monty blinks; afraid. Tooley walks across and leans right into him.

TOOLEY (CONT'D)

These women get what they want, you're fucked. So why don't you start thinking less about what your union can do for you and more what you can do for your union... Go break the strike!

Monty trembles, humiliated, then walks numbly from the office. A long silence. Tooley looks to the others.

TOOLEY (CONT'D)

Personnel files... Everyone's got a weak spot. You just gotta find it.

90

EXT. RIVER PLANT - DAY

90

The women are now on picket before their entrance gates and a lorry delivering supplies, turns away in support of them. The women all cheer. The lorry pips as it drives back up the road.

BRENDA

Definite.

Rita frowns; looks over to Brenda and Eileen

EILEEN

Maybe if I was desperate.

BRENDA

He was lovely! And supportive-

EILEEN

He had cross eyes-

Rita sees a figure approaching-

RITA

Hello, love! Thought you weren't comin' -
 (hands across money)
 Got your strike pay. Albert let me have it-

Connie looks at it, takes it and nods. But she is hassled. She places her bag on the kerb beside several others, then steps across to join the chatting girls.
 Rita lowers her voice.

RITA (CONT'D)

You alright?

CONNIE

Yeah... Fine.

Connie looks up the road. But she is aware of Rita staring at her; not convinced. Connie sighs, then steps back to rummage in her bag: a diversion. Rita moves over.
 Connie lowers her voice.

CONNIE (CONT'D)

-Was a load've press outside the Labour
 Exchange. They cornered George...

(Rita is confused)

"Had he fought for a country where the women'd turn out to be more militant than the men?" -

RITA

Silly sods.

Connie frowns; that's not what she meant.

CONNIE

Yeah.

But then, a bell sounds briefly. Rita looks across. A dark blue police van pulls up.

SANDRA

What they doin' here?

Three or four policemen get out of the van.

BRENDA

Hello boys. Nothin' too physical. Til we're on first name terms. I'm Brenda-

The girls all laugh. A young PC, about twenty, speaks:

COPPER

You gotta move.

The hilarity stops in an instant.

RITA

What?

COPPER

You're trespassin'.

RITA

No, we ain't. We're picketin' -

COPPER

You can't. Not here.

CONNIE

Not here ^(annoyed)
Yes, we can. It's our right!

COPPER

Not here ain't. We're

CONNIE

He is firm. The girls are stunned.

COPPER (CONT'D)

You can do it at the bottom of the High Street-

But this road, all the way back to town, Ford built. So it's private property and since you're on strike you're actually out of contract which means you

RITA
It's alright, Connie-

CONNIE
No. It ain't alright!

COPPER
(to Connie)
Will you just move-

CONNIE
No!

Rita is worried, the situation starting to boil-

BRENDA
Yeah, sod off! We ain't doin' nothin' wrong-

The women link arms. Connie is on the end of the line.

COPPER
You are! And you gotta shift!

He shoves Connie forwards. She pulls away.

CONNIE
Get off me! You ignorant bugger-

COPPER
Right! Lads-

He beckons the other coppers. And grabs Connie.

RITA
Leave her!

CONNIE
Get off!

COPPER
Come here-

Connie kicks her heel hard into his shin. He cries out, letting go. But the other coppers grab her as the girls shove back against them. A huge melee ensues. The press take photos and Sandra tries to smile, even as she's shoved one way and the other. In a moment, though, Connie, screaming, is extracted, shoved in the van and the coppers are away. Silence immediately falls and Rita looks to Brenda, shocked.

91 INT. RIVER PLANT, CORRIDOR - DAY

Monty stands looking out of a window at the aftermath of the skirmish. A pay phone is close by, on the wall. Monty feels sick.

A clock ticks. And ticks. Then we see George. He sits at home. He is in an armchair but is perched right on the edge of the seat. He looks at the time. Then back to a spot on the far wall. He suddenly screws his eyes tight shut and grimaces. A second and he opens his eyes again. Wherever he is, he's utterly terrified.

Brenda, Rita and Eileen are all piled into the station and Rita speaks to the uniformed desk clerk. She is incredulous.

RITA

You can't just keep her in.

CLERK

We can do what we like while she's hysterical -

RITA

Course she's hysterical! She's been in a bleedin' police cell all afternoon-(gathers her own emotions)
Please. Just let me speak to her.

CLERK

She ain't allowed visitors-

RITA

I'm not visitin'! I'm tryin' to sort things out-

TOOLEY (O.S.)

Excuse me!... Can I help here?

Tooley pushes through the women.

TOOLEY (CONT'D)

I only just found out... A question of trespass, I gather? On Ford property?

CLERK

CLERK

There's also a matter of assault-

EXT. CONNIE'S HOUSE

93A

Connie enters her house.

94 INT. CONNIE'S HOUSE - LATE AFTERNOON

94

Connie closes her door. She looks pale. A second as she gathers herself. Then she walks towards the sitting room, calling out, brightly-

CONNIE
I'm back, George-

But there is no-one there, his chair empty.

CONNIE (CONT'D)
George?

She passes into the kitchen. Nothing. And now she's looking slightly anxious. She calls generally, to the house...

CONNIE (CONT'D)
I'm home, love-

And she hurries from the kitchen to the stairs. We see her run up them.

CONNIE (CONT'D)
George!

Then we hear her upstairs. Front bedroom, back bedroom and running back down the stairs. She looks scared.

95 EXT. WASTELAND - LATE AFTERNOON

95

George wanders across a bleak, barren expanse of open ground. His steps are jerky, ragged. He looks wretched.

96 EXT. DAGENHAM ESTATE - LATE AFTERNOON

96

We hear shouts from the girls. They are calling George's name as they search the estate. Rita and Connie appear at the foot of a twitchell.

CONNIE
Christ-

RI TA
He'll turn up-

CONNIE
I said. I said I'd be back at two-

RI TA
Connie-

CONNIE
(shouts)
George!

Rita looks stressed but knows she must remain calm.

RITA
Maybe he's down the Dock Club-

CONNIE
(bitter)
What with?

They hear Brenda calling George. Then see her, emerging from a side road, unsuccessful. Connie looks dreadful. Rita, too.

97

EXT. WASTELAND - LATE AFTERNOON

97

Graham, still in school uniform, carrying a football, heads home. He frowns; recognising the figure sitting on a fly tipped bench. It is George. Graham moves over.

GRAHAM
Hello Mr Andrews... You alright?

George says nothing. There is a hint of spittle in the corner of his mouth. Graham is unsure. He glances round, then sits beside George.

GRAHAM (CONT'D)
Just been playin' football. I was Bobby Moore...
(nothing from George)
I should get home for me tea-

He starts to move. But George reaches out and takes his hand. Graham is shocked at first; but then he looks into George's eyes and sees the fear. And shock gives way to worry and he finally sits back, holding the older man's hand.

98

EXT. EDGE OF WASTELAND - ESTATE - LATE AFTERNOON

98

Connie, Rita, Eileen, Monica all crying out for George. And in them all we hear the gathering concern, the

99 INT. RIVER PLANT - AFTERNOON

Gordon sits in the empty warehouse reading the paper. A man with a clipped 'tash and severely parted hair stands to one side shouting into the phone.

FRANK

Don't you take that tone with me! I -

(stops; listens; then-)

There aren't any! That's what I'm sayin':

You've had 'em all! There are no more finished seats... full stop!

He slams the phone down. Then he takes a deep breath and gathers himself. He walks past Gordon who looks up from his paper.

GORDON

Frank!

Frank glances across

GORDON (CONT'D)

What do you want me to do, then?

FRANK

(matter of fact)

Go home.

GORDON

What?

Frank stops by the door. He turns; looks serious-

FRANK

No more seats... no more job.

Frank leaves. Gordon's face as he realises he's being laid off. He is stunned. And angry.

100 INT. FORD MAIN PLANT - AFTERNOON

The assembly line stops.

101 INT. HOPKINS OFFICE - AFTERNOON

101

Hopkins scrambles for his phone, terrified and dial s-

102 EXT. DAGENHAM HIGH STREET - AFTERNOON

102

A pale Rita walks through Dagenham's deserted streets. She is exhausted. But then, a man cycles up the hill. Then another. She checks her watch and frowns. Too early.

But more sweep by until finally, a huge tide of cyclists pass by her. One or two men glance at her as they go. Finally, she stops an older man, moving slowly.

RITA

What's goin' on?

MAN

You done it...

(she is uncertain)

They've laid everyone off-

(she blinks)

And now, we've got five thousand men out of a job, as well... Their husbands and boyfriends... Which means, in a very short time, when those men can't afford their booze and their soccer and their

111 EXT. DAGENHAM TOWN CENTRE - AFTERNOON 111

Rita walks through town. She approaches a large brick building: Department of Labour and Social Services, Employment Exchange. One or two men pass inside and several more are gathered in groups by the gate. Rita sees them, crosses the road, and accelerates. She slows at a bus stop. She lights a cigarette with unsteady hands. Then she stops. Someone is there; it is Gordon. She smiles, relieved.

RITA

Hello, Gordon-

GORDON

Don't you fuckin' hello me!

(she blinks, shocked)

You don't have to work. You got an husband. My missus don't have to. You do, 'cause it's nice. It's a bit extra. But you don't have to... I have to fuckin' work. To pay the electric and the food and the coal. The fuckin' basics. Only now I can't. I can't shift what ain't there... You fuckin' idiot.

He strides off. Rita doesn't move, feeling sick.

113 EXT. REAR OF CONNIE'S HOUSE - AFTERNOON 113 **

Rita passes down the side of Connie's house. She looks upset still. **

RITA **

Connie... You in? **

She peeps over the wall. Connie is sitting on a chair by the door, bucket at her feet, peeling potatoes- **

RITA (CONT'D) **

Could do with seein' a friendly face- **

She flashes an injured smile but immediately Connie's own expression shifts; becomes guilty, evasive. And Rita looks concerned. **

114 EXT. REAR OF CONNIE'S HOUSE - AFTERNOON 114

Rita stares at Connie, upset and panicky.

RITA

You can't just stop-

CONNIE

I'm not stoppin'. I'm still on strike. I still support you- **

(Rita makes to speak) **

I can't...be on the front line so much, that's all- **

RITA

But we need you...at the meetin's and...The younger girls look up to you- **

CONNIE

You're in charge, Rita! You wanted to be in charge! Of this dispute. **

Rita looks upset by that one and it forces Connie to turn away. She tries another tack. **

CONNIE (CONT'D) **

I got arrested. They put us in a cell. It's too much for me! **

Again they make eye contact. And this time Rita knows Connie's making excuses. Connie sees this and exhales; unable to keep up the pretence any longer. She scoffs, sadly. **

CONNIE (CONT'D)

What do you want me to say, Rita? George is ill. You know that! He's touched. And the strike's whippin' everything up... I gotta put him first-

(Rita makes to speak)

You don't understand!

(frowns)

I'm not his wife no more. I'm more like his... sister or-

CONNIE (CONT'D)

But I'm his. And that's all he's got left.

Rita stares at her friend, her heart breaking.

RITA

And I ain't sayin' you gotta give up on him, Connie. Just...

(imploringly)

You count, too. Your life... And you gotta allow it to blossom, just a bit... Or the war's gonna destroy two people, Con! And that would be so wrong.

Connie stares hard at Rita.

115

Tooley walks into the office where Grant is working. He is tense and opens a drawer aggressively. Grant closes a filing cabinet. Nothing. He sighs. But then he notices an old copy of the Dagenham and Redbridge Echo, folded on top of the cabinet. On it is a picture of Sandra, in hot pants.

GRANT

Mr Tooley...

Tooley turns, eyes greedy; he heard a thought there-

116 INT. BRENDA'S HOUSE - AFTERNOON

116

Rita addresses a number of the girls, driving herself, as well as them, on.

RITA

We gotta stand firm. Everyone of us! It ain't easy... And it's gonna get harder now. Cause we ain't caved in how they thought we would. Which means they're desperate... But we've got this far, so we can get a bit further... as long as we stick together.

Rita nods, exhausted. Then she sees Connie at the back of the room. She smiles at her gratefully.

117 EXT. BRENDA'S HOUSE - AFTERNOON

117

The girls are starting to emerge from the house. They pass between Eileen and Brenda who hold sacks of garden produce.

EILEEN

Don't forget your veg, girls-

She hands a cauliflower to the first girl leaving-

BRENDA

I will pass on a personal thank you to Mr
Horovitz from every single one of you-

They cut off the electricity, apparently-

121 EXT. RITA'S HOUSE - AFTERNOON

121

Rita strides over to Eddie-

RITA
You spent the money-

EDDIE Eh?

RITA
You spent the last of the emergency. Out the repair kit.

EDDIE
I had to pay the milk man.

RITA
Why?-

EDDIE
What d' you mean-

RITA
We could'a kept him off til next week-

EDDIE
He wanted payin'!-

RITA
And you shoulda told him we didn't have it!
(he makes to speak)
Christ, Eddie, I'm in charge of the money-

EDDIE
Well, you ain't much good at it are you!
Or we might have some left!
(she blinks, shocked; he scoffs)
Welcome to the real world, Rita. This is bein' on strike: you run out of cash and you end up screamin' at each other.

She stares at him, ashen.

RITA
What happened to you?

Rita Stares then hurries off.

122 EXT. ESTATE / SANDRA'S MUM'S HOUSE - AFTERNOON

122

Rita and Sharon, in school uniform, walk down a street. Rita strides ahead pulling Sharon along. Sharon winces.

SHARON

Ow. Mum!

Rita stops. Realises what she is doing.

RITA

I'm sorry. Sorry, sweetheart.

She bends down and kisses her hard on the cheek.

SHARON

Why we comin' this way-

RITA

Cause we're gonna see Aunty Sandra... She needs cheerin' up.

Rita stops and knocks on a door. It opens. Sandra's mum. Rita smiles at her sympathetically-

RITA (CONT'D)

Hello, Marge. Is she in?

MUM

No. She's gone to the factory.

(proud)

That Mr Tooley rang her. Asked for her personal.

Rita's face. Fear.

PHOTOGRAPHER

Brilliant, Sandra. That's great-

He moves into position. Tooley looks triumphantly to Brenda and Eileen who stand with Sharon.

PHOTOGRAPHER (CONT'D)

Same as before. Loads' ve oomph, loads' ve energy...

Sandra slips off the dressing gown

PHOTOGRAPHER (CONT'D)

Loads' ve, Christ-

He stops. Sandra is down to her bikini. And written on her body in red lipstick is: EQUAL PAY

SANDRA

How's that look?

Tooley trembles with suppressed rage.

128 EXT. FACTORY - NIGHT

128

The factory is deserted; shut down still and creaking with inactivity.

129 INT. CONNIE'S HOUSE - DAY

129

George sits in the kitchen. He has the paper before him but doesn't read it. Then Connie enters. She is dressed up and grabs a hand bag.

GEORGE

You're goin' are you?

She turns. Frowns.

CONNIE

You know I am. I said. It's an emergency meetin'... Rita asked me to go, 'special -
(He stares. Nods)

You gotta fight for what you believe in, George. You know that. More than anyone.

He stares.

GEORGE
You think I'd do the same again. If another war come round?

CONNIE
I know you would... Cause you're an hero.

He stares. There is utter conviction on her face.

GEORGE
I love you.

She frowns. Wrong footed. Then there is a knock on the door. It opens.

RITA
Con. You all set?...George-

Rita smiles at George. Connie looks from Rita, back to her husband. He smiles.

GEORGE Go.

She does and the door closes. George smiles again.

INT. UNION OFFICES - DAY

130

Rita looks nervous. She glances at Connie. They sit in the little ante-room where Albert had been before his bollocking. And suddenly it is Albert who appears, walking in from the main office. He turns to the room behind him in which we see Bartholomew, Rogers, Monty and a couple of other Union Reps. Albert smiles at them, confidently, then virtually closes the door behind him.

ALBERT
This way, please, ladies-

The women move across. Albert lowers his voice to a whisper-

ALBERT (CONT'D)
They've hung you out to dry. Lads in the other unions've had enough. Whatever they say now, don't believe it and we'll sort it out after-(normal voice)
If you'd follow me-

He throws open the door again and leads the women into the main chamber.

Ri ta' s j aw i s fi xed. She gl ances at Conni e.

BARTHOLOMEW

We are absolutely behind you still, Ri ta.
You and the gi rls... We ai n' t sayi n'

UNDERSECRETARY

Only, they're not... Being solid. The men want to return to work. So they're

And Rita is there already, grabbing George round the thighs and trying to take the weight off his neck.

And then she stops. A car is parked close to her house. Lisa's. She climbs from the vehicle and smiles. Rita does her best to return the gesture as she reaches the car.

RITA

This is a surprise.

LISA

Yeah. I'm... sorry it's so late... I nearly didn't come at all.

She's nervous. Rita is too numb to see it.

RITA

You wanna pop in? I... be honest, I ain't feelin' the most chatty but-

LISA

No...I really don't want to keep you, I just-

She looks at Rita; and loses her nerve. She smiles instead.

LISA (CONT'D)

Mr Clarke has been asked to leave the school.

(Rita frowns; the name cuts through)

LISA (CONT'D)

All sorts of reasons... Especially the work... I loved to read about all these extraordinary people. Making history. I always wondered what it felt like...

(nods)

Let me know will you... When you've finished doing it.

(kisses her on the cheek)

Don't let me down.

She gets into the car and drives off.

RITA

What?

EDDIE

We gotta sort this out. Now!

(she makes to speak)

No... We have and... I know it ain't been good... between us lately-

(again she tries to speak)

Which... I ain't about to make worse, I promise, only... We gotta stop the rot or-

RITA

(weary)

Eddie-

EDDIE

Listen to me!

His impassioned expression slows her. He focuses.

EDDIE (CONT'D)

Look. If I ain't... appreciated what you done, properly... how you've come on and... what you've achieved, all that... then I'm sorry-

She doesn't want this; looks down the road.

RITA

I gotta catch a bus-

EDDIE

Rita! I am sorry... But you ain't been perfect in all this either, you know... I mean, just cause you believe in a particular thing with all your heart, that don't mean it actually is the most crucial thing in the whole world...

RITA

This really ain't the time, Eddie-

EDDIE

Yes! It is! Cause it needs sayin'! I know you reckon I'm not bothered about the important things and I just... drift along and I'm more interested in fiddlin' with motorbikes and makin' tents out of head rest covers but... I do me best. You know?

(scoffs)

Christ, I'm not out on the beer every night or... screwin' other women, or-

(a thought)

I've never once raised me hand to you!

(MORE)

Ever. Or the kids. And-(He stops. She is smiling)
What? Why you lookin' like that?-

RITA

You're a saint. That's what you're tellin' me, Eddie? You're a bleedin' saint! Cause you give us an even break...
(thunderous)

That's as it should be... Jesus! What you think this strike's been all about?
It ain't about us gettin' special treatment, you know... Kid gloves... It's been about fairness. What's proper... And you stand there now and lecture me about countin' me blessin's...

(nods)

Well, you're right actually... You don't knock us about, you don't drink, you don't gamble, you do join in with the family...

(through gritted teeth)

That's-as-it-should-be!... Try and understand that. Please. What you're talkin' about now... what I've been fightin' for, the last few weeks... Same thing... Rights. Not privileges.

She marches off and Eddie watches her

A kerfuffle by the door. Monty squints into the darkness. The lights come on. The Dagenham contingent are there, Eileen by the switch, banners at the ready.

MONTY

Now hang on-

BRENDA

No, you hang on-

More rowdiness and shouts of Judas. The whole hall hums. Several delegates stand to see what's happening. Monty has moved to the front of the stage and calls out for the girls to sit down and that he'll explain, while they call back at him. Finally Monty returns and shouts into the microphone.

MONTY

Be quiet!

The noise shocks everyone into silence. Monty is embarrassed and moderates his voice.

MONTY (CONT'D)

Sorry...Gentlemen...We'll sort this out amongst ourselves later-

SCOTSMAN

(shouts; stands)

Hey, Monty! I've seen more of their mugs on the front pages these last few weeks than you've managed in twenty years!

(laughter from crowd)

I wouldnae mind heari'n' from 'em.

Shouts of support. Monty looks terrified.

MONTY

No-

More shouts of support. Monty shakes his head.

147 EXT. SEAFRONT - EVENING

147

Eddie walks down the seafront and stops. Parked up ahead is a coach...From Dagenham. He runs past it and into the Hotel outside which it is parked.

148 INT. HOTEL IN WEYMOUTH - EVENING

148

More shouts. Monty looks trapped. Then the sound of slow stamping and clapping. Louder and louder. Then Brenda, Eileen and the others step aside. Rita is there. She walks towards the platform. And Monty looks sunk.

149 INT. HOTEL IN WEYMOUTH - EVENING 149

Eddie looks for a sign and runs towards the doors which lead into the hall.

150 INT. HOTEL IN WEYMOUTH - EVENING 150

Eddie bursts into the hall and stops right at the back. Rita is at the lectern, a light on her. All around is still. She makes to speak then stops, gathering herself; all of the emotion of the last few days sweeping over her. She stares at the people in the hall, their faces turned to her. Waiting...

RITA

My best friend lost her husband recently. Durin' the war he was a gunner in Fifty Squadron in the RAF. He got shot down one time... on a raid to Essen and even though he managed to bail out, he was badly injured. I asked him once, why he'd joined the raf and he said... they got the best women...

(Laughter in the hall. She nods, upset)

Which they did...

**

Eddie stares at Rita

RITA (CONT'D)

But then he said, you had to do somethin'. And he'd always wanted to go up in a plane...

Her jaw tightens; she feels the cause start to flood through her veins.

RITA (CONT'D)

You had to do somethin'... That was a given. Cause it was a matter of principle. You had to stand up; do what was right, 'cause otherwise you wouldn't be able to look yourself in the mirror.

(stares at hall)

When did that change? When did we, in this country, start bein' happy, to do nothin'? On what day did we decide we had no duty to fairness no more?

(The hall is silent. She nods slightly)

It has NOT changed.

(MORE)

That is NOT us...It is not you...And we are only in this situation now, where women get paid less money than men for doing the same work...

(lets it sink in. Nods)

-because we was tricked. Those in power kept tellin' us: it's fine. You don't need to do the right thing cause there's nothin' needs fixin'. And they said it for so long, we ended up believin' it was right....Well it ain't right!

Calls of support. Heads nod in agreement.

RITA (CONT'D)

It was wrong at the start, it's wrong now, and it'll be wrong forever! -

(shouts of agreement)

-unless you back us, you stand up, you remember who you

BRENDA
(to another woman)
I'm tellin' you! You can see 'em! Scorch marks right up the curtains where Monty's arse caught fire-

The woman laughs. Rita smiles. Her chest still heaves.
Eileen grabs her wrist.

EILEEN
Come on, let's have a drink-

RITA
We got no money-

SANDRA

EDDIE

I...come to say sorry. I mean...I thought...about what you said and-(shrugs)

You're right, I suppose...You are right.
(nods)

And it is amazin' what you done...Ri ta

UNDERSECRETARY

It's verbatim.

UNDERSECRETARY TWO

Our man was there.

BARBARA CASTLE

Well, well, well -

(looks to them)

So the strike remains solid. And meanwhile, five thousand men have now been laid off and the country has lost export orders worth 8 million pounds...

(checks notes)

8 million.

She looks back to the undersecretaries.

UNDERSECRETARY TWO

It really does seem time to call in Sir Jack.

BARBARA CASTLE

Good...I'll do that then. I'll appoint a Court of Inquiry, which he can oversee. And let's hope that does the job.

She smiles. The men glance at each other and stand.

BARBARA CASTLE (CONT'D)

Oh, yes. And one other thing...Set up a meeting with you.

UNDERSECRETARY

Minister?

BARBARA CASTLE

With the machinists. Their leaders.

The men glance at each other.

UNDERSECRETARY

Pardon me?

BARBARA CASTLE

I want to meet them. At my St James's Square Offices...At the earliest opportunity.

UNDERSECRETARY

But-

Mrs Castle looks at them quizzically. Yes?

UNDERSECRETARY (CONT'D)

The Minister doesn't. Do that. Never has done.

UNDERSECRETARY TWO

It'll just encourage them.

UNDERSECRETARY

Give credence to their cause.

She looks at them. Long beat. She inhales. Then:

BARBARA CASTLE

I'm what's known as a fiery red head...I hate to make this a matter of appearance...go all womanly on you but...there you have it. And me standing up like this-

(gets to her feet)

(MORE)

Is in fact, just that red headed fieriness, leaping to the fore...

(voice rises furiously)

Credence! I will give credence to their cause? My God. Their cause already has credence. It's equal pay. Equal pay is common justice. And if you weren't such a bunch of egotistical, chauvinistic, bigoted dunderheads, you'd realise it-

UNDERSECRETARY

I -

BARBARA CASTLE

This is an office run by incompetents. And I am sick and tired of being patronised, spoken down to and generally indulged as if I was the May Queen!

(one of the men holds up a tremulous finger, as if to make a point-)

Set up the meeting!

The men scatter.

INT. HOPKINS OFFICE - DAY

154

Tool ey gl ares-

TOOLEY

Whaddy mean, The Secretary of State is gonna see the women? On whose say so?

Hopki ns faces Tool ey; scared.

HOPKINS

On her own, I gather... Apparently, Mrs Castle's quite a forceful woman-

TOOLEY

RITA

You hate it...

**

She looks back to the wardrobe. The lads glance at each other appalled.

**

RITA (CONT'D)

I ain't got anythin' that's right-

And then Rita stops; has an idea...

156

INT. HOPKINS HOUSE - DAY

156

Hopkins is back at home. He stares sickly at the front page of the Telegraph which records the ongoing horror of Ford's plummeting sales figures. Then the door bell rings. Hopkins waits for Lisa to answer. But it rings again. He sighs and stands, crossing to the door. He opens it. Rita. He is stunned.

RITA

S' alright. I ain't come to see you. It's your missus I wanna talk to.

Lisa steps forward from behind Hopkins.

LISA

Rita... What are you doing here?

HOPKINS

Rita?!

RITA

I need a favour.

Hopkins is agog. Lisa nods.

LISA

Come inside-

HOPKINS

(annoyed)

Lisa-

LISA

What!?

Her look is hard; combative. He has not seen it before. She holds his gaze, furiously and he steps meekly to one side. Rita enters the house.

157

INT. THE PRIME MINISTER'S CAR - DAY

157

Harold Wilson puffs on his pipe as his official motor sets off around St James's Square. Mrs Castle settles next to him, having just got in. Wilson looks tense and when Mrs Castle raises an enquiring eyebrow, he gets straight to it-

HAROLD WILSON

Have you or have you not invited the Ford women to your offices?

Mrs Castle hesitates, momentarily. Then:

BARBARA CASTLE

Prime minister-

HAROLD WILSON

I have just spent the last half an hour on the phone to Henry Ford the Second, reassuring him that my government is not on the side of the strikers-

BARBARA CASTLE

It's not a question of sides. We have to grasp the nettle

HAROLD WILSON

By aligning ourselves with the machinists?

(she makes to deny this)

I wanted you to fix this! Not to make it worse-!

BARBARA CASTLE

And I will fix it! If you'd just...

(can't help it)

Bloody well support me!

This shocks them both. But Wilson can see her passion. He nods. Go on.

HAROLD WILSON

Meet the women if that's what you want to do. But don't upset Ford. I've got enough

HAROLD WILSON (CONT'D)

158 EXT. ROADSIDE - DAY 158

Rita strides through Dagenham. Pull back. She wears Lisa's Biba dress. Ahead, the other girls wait for her.

159 EXT. BARBARA CASTLE'S WESTMINSTER OFFICES - DAY 159

The rather splendid exterior of Mrs Castle's offices.

160 INT. BARBARA CASTLE'S WESTMINSTER OFFICES - DAY 160

The undersecretaries are struggling with a sofa. They put it down, then straighten. They are sweating.

BARBARA CASTLE

There. Perfect... Actually... Maybe it was better where we had it before-

(The men exchange glances)

Oh... dizzy me.

The men stagger back with the sofa and she turns away. Up close we see she is nervous. She looks back-

Just the armchairs, then...

(she disappears from view)

And I want plenty of sherry.

The girls walk towards St James's Square, followed by the press. A second crowd of photographers and a camera crew, already in-situ, rush forwards to envelop them. Behind, the press who have dogged them all day, also shove

REPORTER (O.S.)
Rita! Rita! Can we have a final comment-

REPORTER TWO (O.S.)
Rita-

RITA
I-

All of the girls are through the cordon and the reporters are pushed back. But still they look formidable-

REPORTER TWO
Rita! Is equal pay really a possibility?

REPORTER THREE
What if Mrs Castle says no deal?

REPORTER
How will you cope?

RITA
Cope? How will we cope?

She is aware of Connie beside her. Eileen, Sandra and Brenda, too. Rita looks back to the reporter.

RITA (CONT'D)

We're women. Now don't ask such stupid questions.

Rita turns to Connie and leads the girls back inside.

164 INT. BARBARA CASTLE'S WESTMINSTER OFFICES - DAY 164

Mrs Castle checks the room; with sofas and armchairs arranged in a circle it now looks like a living room rather than a meeting place. She takes a deep breath and crosses to a large armoire at the back of the room. She opens it and selects a jacket from her closet. She plumps for something rather old. She looks at herself in the door mirror. Very sober. Then she checks shoes. The pair we've seen on several occasions are discarded and a plainer pair popped on. There is knock on the door. An under secretary comes in

UNDERSECRETARY

Minister, there's a slight problem.

Mrs Castle turns to the secretary.

164A INT. BARBARA CASTLE'S WESTMINSTER OFFICES - DAY 164A

Mrs Castle walks into a smaller room. A man stands with his back to us. He turns, it's Tooley.

TOOLEY

Mrs Castle.

BARBARA CASTLE

Mr Tooley - I wasn't expecting you.

They shake hands.

TOOLEY

But you are meeting the women?

BARBARA CASTLE

I think it's time I listened to their argument. If you'd care to wait I'll inform you of any decisions we make.

She turns. Tooley watches her; his jaw suddenly tightens-

TOOLEY

You know, we basically want the same thing, Mrs Castle...you and I-

She stops and turns

Connie smiles. And Rita immediately leans closer in- **

RITA (CONT'D) **

I'm so sorry- **

CONNIE **

No! Don't. It's me that needs to apologise- **

(Rita frowns) **

I loved George. More than anything. But when it happened I felt guilty and I took it out on you- **

(nods head) **

But I am glad now, 'cause he ain't sufferin' no more. And that's how he would want me to feel. Which is why he did it. **

(smiles, simply) **

He was such a brave man, Rita. **

Rita is amazed but before she can react, the door is opened and an undersecretary is there. **

UNDERSECRETARY **

The Minister will see you now- **

The women all look at each other. **

165 INT. BARBARA CASTLE'S WESTMINSTER OFFICES - DAY 165

They walk into the main office where Mrs Castle is waiting in front of the grand fireplace.

RITA

Mrs Castle?

She turns and smiles

BARBARA CASTLE

I am... And you're Mrs O'Grady. I recognise you from the news.

She crosses and they shake.

RITA

I'm pleased to meet you.

BARBARA CASTLE

And me, you.

Mrs Castle looks to the others.

RITA

Sorry. This is Connie, Brenda and Sandra.

BARBARA CASTLE

I'm delighted you could all come

They all nod. Mrs Castle's brain is racing.

BARBARA CASTLE (CONT'D)

Please take a seat. Would you care for a sherry?

Mrs Castle, nods to a strategically placed undersecretary.

BRENDA

You ain't got whiskey, have you?

The girls look to Brenda thunderously.

165A

INT. BARBARA CASTLE'S WESTMINSTER OFFICES - DAY

Mrs Castle places her jacket on her chair. She's delaying. Then she turns to Rita who sits directly opposite, a small table between them.

BARBARA CASTLE

I've been following your dispute very closely. And I want to say how proud I am of the battle you've fought. I fully support the struggle for equal pay.

The girls look to each other, flushed with hope.

BARBARA CASTLE (CONT'D)

And you will have it... But in time.

RITA

What?

BARBARA CASTLE

Industry is going to object. The Lords'll kick up a fuss. The press'll have a field day... It isn't going to be easy-

**

RITA

What is, that's worth havin'?

Mrs Castle makes to retort then stops and considers the girls. This is difficult. But she drives on-

BARBARA CASTLE

Return to work, get back to your machines and then you have my word that I will push forward with your fight-

RITA

No!

The girls were all thinking it but Rita's vehemence still

Black and white TV footage. Mrs Castle stands with the girls. She clears her throat.

BARBARA CASTLE

Thank you... Thank you very much... I'm delighted to say that following our talks this afternoon, getting down to the nitty gritty, the 187 Ford machinists will be going back to work on the 1st of July. They will get an immediate pay rise of 7d an hour which will put them at 92% of the male rate. However, this is not an end to it. As a result of our discussion, I can announce that the government is fully committed to the creation of an Equal Pay Act and by the Autumn of this year, I guarantee appropriate legislation will be put into place to ensure that that act becomes law.

She steps back. Cameras flash and reporters call out. Rita breathes deeply, absorbing the scene.

She places her arms around Connie and with Sandra and Eileen and Brenda, they form up as a group. They all beam. SNAP. And the picture freezes.

THE STRIKE BY THE DAGENHAM SEWING MACHINISTS AND THE SUBSEQUENT SETTLEMENT NEGOTIATED THAT AFTERNOON WITH MRS BARBARA CASTLE DID INDEED LEAD TO THE INTRODUCTION OF AN EQUAL PAY ACT. IT BECAME LAW IN 1970.
