Pilot:

of our system, we only want one writer to be the main point of contact for each piece of work.

7. * Script History

* Has this work previously been submitted to BBC Writersroom?

If yes, please provide details.

* Has this work previously been submitted to other BBC departments?

If yes, please provide details.

8. * Additional Information

* One page pitch

Please upload your one-page pitch outlining a potential series or serial idea, which is unconnected to your spec script, for a BBC channel

* CV and Eligibility Criteria (PDF max 10MB)

Please upload a PDF file of your CV detailing your writing experience to date. You must include details of your literary agent AND/OR your produced 30 min credit(s) for your own original writing in either Theatre, Radio, Film or Television

* Supporting Information (250 words)

Please include a paragraph on why you think taking part in Pilot 2024 would be beneficial for you at this stage of your writing career (250 words max). We would recommend drafting and saving this paragraph in a separate document as it will not be saved in the form if it times out before you successfully submit

Script/pitch development info

Have your submitted script and/or pitch been through a development process with a production company, agent, training scheme? If yes, then please provide details (250 words max). This section does not need to be filled in if it does not apply to you.
